The Legian 5 Stars

"A beautiful beachfront luxury hotel, which also boasts eleven of the best villas in Bali."

Hotel Overview

Review of The Legian, by Caroline Major

At the swanky end of Seminyak, beyond the Oberoi and Kudeta, the luxury hotel to choose for a sunset cocktail in Bali is The Legian. Built on the principle that the sort of people who stay here might be the sort of people who liked each other if only they were to meet, the ground floor is a labyrinth of bars, lounges, stretches of beach, gardens and restaurants - all intertwined to provide a large communal living space. The focal point of it all is a fabulous swimming pool, which viewed from ground level seems to merge with the ocean and the horizon in a neat architectural trick that creates a true infinity pool.

The facilities

The spa and its services are top notch in this luxury hotel. The yoga instructor when Travel Intelligence stayed was world class as were the facilities. Doing an Iyengar class with both the view and sound of the ocean was en

Facilities

Hotel Facilities: Baby-sitting, Gym/Fitness centre, Outdoor pool, Restaurant, Spa & treatments, Steam room

Come for...

- Two-tier infinity pool overlooking the ocean
- Children's facilities
- Personal butler service in designer suites

Not Suitable for...

- Business facilities and conferences
- Shallow pockets

Children

The hotel welcomes children. There is a babysitting service and a selection of children

Eating in

The Restaurant is a fine-dining bistro, offering European cuisine with Asian influences. For a romantic meal, request a secluded pavilion overlooking the ocean. Room service is available around the clock, ideal for shut-ins and honeymooners.

The Press Say

"Fashionable ... a place to be seen."
